

First Dental Health Access Program

Available in California, Arizona and Nevada

The First Dental Health Access discount dental plan maintains the largest independent network in the state of California and has recently expanded their network to include both Arizona and Nevada. Based in San Diego since 1994, FDH has always been committed to a strong statewide presence. In addition to having great discounted fees, the FDH network includes more than 8,200 credentialed dentist listings that provide discount of 25% to 60% on general and specialty dentistry.
